

Think 8: How many rectangles are there?

Hint: One approach to solving this problem is to select two corners of a rectangle and to find all the rectangles which share those two corners. The below rectangles are provided, to facilitate your use of this strategy.

